

I AM WINTER, KING OF SEASONS

Dear Autumn,

Time to go!
Scram! Vamoose!
It's time for snow!

I am Winter, King of seasons,
I bring snow for many reasons,
I decorate the walls and gates
With mountain tops of fluffy flakes.

I am the White Knight of charm,
I bring stillness, peace and calm,
I freeze ponds to slivered mirrors,
I float icebergs down the rivers.

I am the Black Prince of darker nights,
I bring the beauty of bright lights,
I twinkle stars in frosty air,
I bring the warmth of festivals to share.

I am the Ice Lord with ambition,
But when I meet the Spring Magician
Who scatters snow drops in the lane,
My icy grip will slip...
I die, defeated once again.

So, Autumn, take your bow,
Time you went
It's my turn NOW!

Yours,
Winter
KING OF SEASONS.

By Brenda Williams